The Follow-Up Problem & Reality

The Follow-Up Problem

Hidden Costs of Follow-Up

Senior leaders lose 8-12 hours weekly chasing updates

Follow-ups drain time, energy, morale

Creates dependency on checking, lowers productivity

Statistics on Follow-Up Time

Leaders spend 15-25% time on follow-ups

Avg. 2-3 hours daily on status requests

67% say follow-ups = biggest time drain

Customer Satisfaction	Recommendation rate
8.1	70%
8.2	71%
8.6	76%
7.9	69%
8.0	70%

03

The Four Pillars of NFR Leadership

Pillar 1: Systemic Follow-Up Elimination

01

Overview

Identify and eliminate routine follow-up bottlenecks
Audit recurring processes (expense reports, onboarding)
Use automation & self-service solutions

02

How to Apply & Checklist

List 5 recurring follow-up situations
Design automation & shared dashboards
Remove manual status checks
Example: Automated workflows & portals

Pillar 2: Formalized Service Level Agreements (SLAs)

Step1

Overview

Turn vague commitments into explicit, trackable SLAs

Define scope, timelines, tracking methods

Document and share SLAs openly

Step2

How to Apply & Checklist

Identify services handled

Draft SLAs & escalation procedures

Review quarterly

Publish and align with stakeholders

SLA Example: Monthly financial report details

Pillar 3: Calendar-Driven Accountability

Overview

- Schedule all commitments as fixed calendar blocks
- Include prep, execution, buffer times
- Treat calendar blocks as non-negotiable appointments

How to Apply & Checklist

- Convert commitments into calendar events
- Block prep time before tasks
- Review calendar daily
- Share calendar with stakeholders
- Example schedule of prep, execution, follow-ups

Pillar 4: Thoughtful Commitments

01

Overview

Commit only when reliable delivery is assured
Pause before agreeing to new requests
Clarify expectations and renegotiate if unrealistic

02

How to Apply & Checklist

Ask clarifying questions
Honestly assess capacity
Confirm commitments in writing
Set realistic timelines with buffers
Thoughtful Commitment Script included
